Abdication of Kaiser Considered Fact; Fighting Fronts of World War Ablaze

PUBLICATION IS DELAYED FOR FAVORABLE OPPORTUNITY

Geneva Dispatch to Paris Says Abdication May be Regarded as True. Terms of Armistice Render it Impossible For Austria to Resume War or to Use Them to Get Out of Bad Situation.

GERMAN ARMISTICE TO BE STIFFER

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 2.—King Boris has abdicated and a Bulgarian republic has been established, according to a Central News dispatch today.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Abdication of the kaiser may be considered to be a fact, according to a Geneva dispatch to the Tempa.

The dispatch said that official publication is being delayed awaiting a favorable opportunity.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Terms for an armistice, which has been presented to Austria, are based on President Wilson's fourteen principles, according to a Rome dispatch today.

They render it impossible for Austria to resume the war or to use the armistice to get out of a bad situation.

An answer is not expected immediately, as the Austro-Hungarian representatives probably will refer it to their superiors.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The terms which the allies are offering to Germany "will be stiffer than those which Turkey was forced to accept," a well informed diplomat stated today.

"Germany will accept stronger terms than is generally believed," he said. He expressed the opinion that Germany probably would yield to almost any limit the allied terms might go.

Punishment for the kaiser and the Prussian war lords guilty of the German crimes of the last four years, will be meted out in summary matter by the German people, diplomatic advices indicated.

The naval section of the armistice terms to be given Germany was in possession of the governments today. No announcement of their contents was made but assurances were given by high officials that every safeguard had been taken in these terms and that they would meet the requirements of every prudent man, so that travel will be safe on all the seas.

Discuss Austrian Armistice.

Geneva, Nov. 2.—Austrian and Italian delegates have arrived in Switzerland.

This delegation probably went to a neutral country to discuss the proposed armistice terms.

Szech-Slovak and Jugo Slav delegations met Thursday night and conferred regarding the armistice which they would be willing to grant to Austria. After this session a joint delegation left for Paris to report the conclusions to the inter-allied diplomatic conference.

Paris, Nov. 2.—The interallied council at Versailles has forwarded to General Diaz, commander of the Italian armies, the terms of the armistice to be granted the Austrians, a newspaper declared today.

The interallied council unanimously agreed upon every clause in the terms, it was stated.

EXPIRES FROM PNEUMONIA

Daily Lock Dies This Morning at 5 O'clock at His Home Here

Daily Lock, age 34 years, died at his home, 349 East Tenth street, this morning at 5 o'clock from pneumonia, following the influenza. The deceased was a trustee in the Modern Woodmen lodge, and also was a member of the Royal Neighbors. He leaves a widow, two daughters, Helen and Rebecca, father, mother and three sisters, Mrs. Noley Newkirk, Mrs. Mollie Vance and Mrs. Clara Newhouse. The funeral will probably be held Monday.

STRICKLAND TOOL OF LIQUOR FORCES

Indiana Anti-Saloon League Says Democratic Candidate For Congress is "Wet."

G. O. P. CANDIDATE IS "DRY"

Record of Two Men in State Legislature Compared—Elliott Same in Congress.

Characterizing Richard N. Elliott of Connersville, republican congressman from this district and candidate for re-election next Tuesday, as a friend of temperance, and Harry Strickland of Greenfield, his democratic opponent, as a "subservient tool of the liquor interests," the Indiana Anti-Saloon League has addressed letters to Rushville men urging the election of Congressman Elliott. It is presumed that similar letters have been sent throughout the sixth district. The records of the two men when they were in the state legislature are compared.

E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana League, who wrote the letter, points out that the congress which will be elected next Tuesday should be friendly to the temperance movement because it will have the responsibility of enacting legislation to give enforcement to the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. ### DRUG STORES TO CLOSE AT 8

To Observe Request of Defense Body to Curtail Working Hours.

The Rushville druggists, complying with the request of the National Council of Defense to curtail working hours, have agreed to close at eight o'clock each evening with the exception of Saturday, beginning next Monday, November 4. The dry goods stores have already announced that they will close at five o'clock each evening with the exception of Saturday, and it is thought that other retail stores will follow their example.

TROPHIES OF WAR PUT ON DISPLAY

Collection Brought Home by Private Hines Hogsett Includes Helmets And Gas Masks.

ALSO HUN SHORT BAYONET

Belt Buckle Reveals How Kaiser Emphasizes Idea of God Being With the Germans

Trophies of war from the St. Michael sector, from which the Huns were driven by the Yankees in twenty-four hours, several weeks ago, are on display in one of the show windows at the J. W. Hogsett dry goods store and form a very interesting exhibit, especially since they have a background of beautiful posters advertising the United War Work campaign, which will be conducted November 11 to 18.

The helmets, gas masks, bayonets, belts and other paraphernalia worn by German soldiers were brought home by Private Hines H. Hogsett, 101st Field Signal Battalion, 26th division, a nephew of J. W. Hogsett, who went to Fort Woods, N. Y. a few days ago, after a furlough with his parents here, with the expectation of being assigned to duty in this country.

The display will undoubtedly attract wide attention because it is Continued on Page Three

VALIENCENNES WHOLLY IN THE HANDS OF THE BRITISH

City is Taken This Morning After Hard Fighting and Battle Continues on Six-Mile Front to the Southward. Four Thousand More Prisoners Taken. Austrian Piave Army Threatened With Encirclement.

ENEMY TRENTINO ARMY IS PURSUED

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 2.—Valenciennes is wholly in the hands of the British, Field Marshal Haig announced today.

The city was taken this morning after hard fighting and a battle is continuing on a six-mile front south of the city. Several counter attacks were repulsed. Four thousand additional prisoners were taken.

With the Italian Armies in the field, Nov. 2.—The Italians following collapse of the Grappa defense, are steadily driving the Austrian Trentino army northward across the mountains toward the frontier.

At the same time the enemy's Piave army, completely cut off from the other Austrian forces, is being pursued across the Venetian plains, constantly under threat of encirclement from the north.

Columns of light cavalry and light infantry are searching the entire southern foothills of the Alps, cutting off the possibility of the Austrians escaping northward from the Venetian plains.

SEVEN SELECTS LOOK FOR ACTION

Are Listed for Voluntary Induction On Motor Transport Call For Overseas Service.

ALL QUESTIONNAIRES MAILED

Total of 747 Returned up to This Morning—of 47 Classified Friday, 27 Are in Class 1.

Seven Rush county military registrants have been listed for induction on the call for general service or limited service men for motor transport overseas. The fact that the call said registrants who were inducted would probably see overseas service in ninety days, is believed responsible for the rush to get in because they want action.

In addition to Ralph Nipp, who was mentioned as an applicant yesterday, the following are seeking to be inducted under this call: Harry Hackman, Lowell Smalley, Donald Meyers and Hugh Jones, all of this city, Albert N. Gahimer of near Manilla and LeRoy Crawford of Carthage. All of these are held for general service. It rests with the camp commander at Newport News, Va., where the registrants will be sent on this call, whether a limited service man is qualified.

Paul Craig of near Lewisville went to Indianapolis today and was voluntarily inducted into the marine corps. He was held for general service. Continued on Page Two

Land on Austrian Coast.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Italian forces, accompanied by American troops, have effected a landing on the Austrian coast of the Adriatic near Pola, a Swiss dispatch received here today through diplomatic channels announced. It was announced that the landing party is under the protection of the entente Adriatic fleet, now in absolute control of Adriatic waters.

Widen Gap in Hun Lines

With the American Armies, Nov. 2.—The American center today continued exploitation of its gains on the Freya line, while the wings pushed ahead and widened the gap in the last organized fortification.

The artillery is fairly smothering the Germans, facilitating the movement of our infantry. The fighting is growing in intensity all along the line.

Resume Aisne Attack

Paris, Nov. 2.—The Franco-American attack on the Aisne front, which is being carried out in conjunction with the American drive west of the Meuse, was resumed this morning, the French war office announced.

Fourteen hundred additional prisoners have been taken so far.

4 Mile Gain on 20-Mile Front

With The American Army in France, Nov. 2.—The Americans, with the French co-operating, have advanced more than four miles in an attack on a 20-mile front between the Aisne and the Meuse.

A deep wedge has been driven into the German line, increasing the menace to the enemys vital communications. More than 3,000 prisoners Continued on Page Eight

Ban To Be Lifted Here As Was First Announced

Although State Board Announces in Indianapolis Statements Order May Not be Rescinded in Rush County, Telegram From Dr. Hurty Leaves Matter to Discretion of Local Health Officers.

CITY SCHOOLS TO REMAIN CLOSED

When the state board of health gave out statements to Indianapolis newspapers to the effect that Rush county was one county in the state in which the ban on public meetings would not be lifted, Dr. E. I. Wooden, county health officer, called Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner this morning, to learn what the state board's orders really were. Yesterday morning Dr. Hurty told Dr. Wooden that the ban could be lifted here.

While Dr. Wooden was talking to Capt. King, Hurty's assistant, over the telephone shortly before noon, a telegram came from Dr. Hurty, recommending that the ban not be lifted in this county, but leaving the matter to the discretion of the county and city health officers.

Dr. Wooden then announced that the orders would be rescinded in the county and that the city board of health could decide whether or not the restrictions should be continued in Rushville. The city board met shortly before noon and decided, since no new cases had been reported Continued on Page Two

"After having been a constant sufferer from catarrh for more than twenty years and after trying almost every remedy advertised, and having lost all hope, I very reluctantly began the use of Peruna about two years ago. Everybody says I look younger now than I did twenty years ago, and I actually feel younger and better, and weigh more. I am recommending it to my neighbors and all with whom I come in contact."

Ban To Be Lifted Here

As Was First Announced.

in Rushville since Thursday—and then only two on that day—that it would be safe to allow public meetings as usual after midnight tonight.

The city school board met with Superintendent J. H. Scholl this morning and reached the decision that, despite the fact that the ban was lifted in the city, it would be the safest course not to open the schools next week.

So the result of the day's orders is that all gatherings will be permitted as usual, beginning tomorrow morning, with the exception that the Rushville public schools will not open Monday morning. Announcement will be made later when the city schools will reopen. Church services will be held tomorrow as previously announced.

After the meeting of the city board of health this morning, two new cases were reported to the secretary.

Repairing a Manure Spreader.

One of the strong inducements in favor of our handling and pushing the sale of the "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Manure Spreader is the REPAIR question. Sometimes our customers think we make a lot of money on repairs—a good deal more than we do. But we like to keep away from the repair question if we can, and in selling a machine, if we could get one that would never have a repair on it until it was entirely and completely worn out, this would be the kind we would sell every time.

Our manure spreader which we have been talking to you about and which is proving so effective in the field, comes as near being repair proof as any machine we ever saw. The reason it requires little or no repairs is the very same reason that gives it such light draft and it is because of this reason that it is sold under a FIVE YEAR GUARANTEE.

The machinery runs so light and there is so little friction that the team does not apply power enough to the machine to wear it out. If it doesn't wear out it doesn't need repairs. This is our simple analysis and it is a true one.

Some machines simply tear themselves to pieces and are constantly in the repair shop or being tinkered up in one way or another, not because the owners abuse or misuse or are neglectful of them, but simply because they won't stand the racket. We don't have to expert our spreader, don't have to look after it—it takes care of itself and we eliminate the repair question. Come and see it.

the first since Thursday. The county health commissioner reported nine new cases to the state board last night, making a total of 653 reported during the epidemic. Some of these nine cases developed on October 27, almost a week ago. One more death today brought the total to fifteen.

Health officials were astonished, after the conversation between Dr. Hurty and Dr. Wooden yesterday morning, that the state board should give statements that the ban would probably not be lifted here tonight. The following telegram received this morning, however, gave the local officers permission to use their own discretion:

"The state board of health closing order expires at midnight Nov. 2. Recommended the ban should not be lifted in your county except as you think advisable. Direct you confer with city health officers. If you decide restrictions are necessary, then advise the state board. Continue daily reports."

The city health secretary announced that no persons who are ill, or sneezers or coughers will be permitted in public meetings. There will be a policeman stationed at the moving picture theaters and persons who violate these orders will be forcibly ejected if necessary, he stated.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

And Dizziness Relieved By Black-Draught, Says Ohio Lady.

Coalton, Ohio.—Mrs. Lucy J. Beatty, of R. F. D. 1, this place, writes: "Some time ago I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach. It seemed there was a hard lump formed in my stomach. This lump was sore and every time I would eat I would feel bloated and pained me terribly. It would seem to come up toward my chest.

I would have smothering spells and feel dizzy. I would start across the floor and would have to sit down. At night I smothered so I couldn't sleep. I would go to bed and wake with a start and feel like I would smother to death... The doctors said it was my age and doctored and doctored, and I didn't get any better.

I was almost discouraged so I began to look around for other remedies and while reading the Almanac I decided to try Black-Draught, which I did. I bought two packages and took it regular for awhile and it cured me and I don't have any more trouble of that kind."

If you suffer from stomach and liver troubles, give Thedford's Black-Draught a trial. It has helped thousands of others—why not you? All druggists. NCB-16

TROPHIES OF WAR PUT ON DISPLAY

the first time such a variety of German soldier equipment has been shown in Rushville. Most interesting of all the articles are the gas masks, one which the Germans wear and one which the English and Americans wear.

The Hun gas mask is a clumsy affair as compared with the one worn by the Yankee or British Tommy. It is not perfected like the allied mask. The American gas mask in the display was the one carried by Private Hogsett during his more than seven months of service in France. It consists of a chemical can connected to the mouthpiece with heavy rubber hose, a clamp fitting over the nose which makes breathing through the nose impossible, and a mask made of heavy material which fits closely over the face.

Two helmets are in the display—one the heavy dome-shape contraption of the German soldier and the other the lighter helmet, with a flat crown, which is worn by the English and Americans. The one shown in the local store was worn by Private Hogsett. Private Hogsett, in explaining how he came by the Boche helmet, said he did not take it from a prisoner, but told him to hand it over, which he very promptly did.

One of the German short bayonets, which looks like it might serve also as a trench knife for digging, or for protection in hand-to-hand encounter is an interesting piece in the exhibit. It has a sharp and a blunt edge just like a knife, and a very sharp point. It is carried in a leather case by the German soldier and hangs on his belt. The one Private Hogsett brought home sports a tassel and was taken from a non-commissioned officer. Private Hogsett says the common soldier does not wear such fancy trappings. The belt which the Hun soldier wears is also interesting in that it shows how the kaiser emphasizes the fact that God is supposed to be with the German. The silver-colored buckle on the belt bears the inscription, "Got Mit Uns" and a picture of the crown.

The display also contains an Austrian medal, a German bed sack made of paper and a book in German explaining the parts of the light Minenwerfers or trench mortars, which was found by Private Hogsett in a Boche cement dugout. The bed-sack is new and was taken from a factory where they were being made, which was captured by Americans. There are also two French shells—17's. The Americans use the same shell, only they call them "one-pounds".

Private Hogsett also brought home with him some French money. In the window display are a 50-centime note worth about ten cents in American money and a 2-franc note worth about forty cents in American money. Both pieces are provincial money and are good only around Brest. Such money has to be changed to silver in traveling from one province to another. There is also a silver piece in the collection. Private Hogsett brought the trophies home with him in the trench sack which was issued to him when he embarked for overseas service.

-tution, which has been passed by congress and will undoubtedly be ratified by the required thirty-six states before the new congress meets. Supt. Shumaker says everything depends upon the election of a congress friendly to this prohibition amendment, "for such a congress will enact effective enforcement measures, while one friendly to the liquor interests can not be trusted to do so."

Regarding the record of the two candidates, the letter says:

"Richard N. Elliott, present republican congressman from the sixth district, voted in congress for the submission of the prohibition amendment to the states. He has also voted for every other temperance measure which has come before congress. Besides this, as a member of the Indiana legislature, in 1905, 1907, and 1908, he voted for the Moore remonstrance, blind tiger and county option laws. His record is clear and on the temperance issue he is altogether trustworthy.

"Harry Strickland, the democratic opponent, had a long record in the Indiana Legislature as a subservient tool of the liquor interests. He voted against the enactment of the blind tiger law in 1907, against the county option law in 1908, and in favor of the repeal of the county option law in the legislative sessions of 1909 and 1911. His record is entirely against him, and he should be defeated.

"We recommend the above, not because Mr. Elliott is a republican, but because he is dry, and not because Mr. Strickland is a democrat, but because his entire legislative record shows him to be wet, and unworthy the support of temperance people.

"We hope, therefore, that regardless of party, temperance forces in the sixth congressional district will unite and work for the election of Richard N. Elliott."

Prostituting Power

In their extremity to win the election at any cost, the democratic party is not stopping at any method. It is dragging every department of the government, from the presidency down, into politics. It is invading every organization and activity which has been set up in order to help win the war and using the machinery thereof in order to win the election for democratic candidates, regardless of whether they have supported the war or not.

Exemption boards are being solicited for money, postmasters are receiving orders from Burleson to report on democratic candidates, Chairman McCormick of the War Trade Board is going after $1,000 subscriptions for "an emergency fund," foreign language papers are being told to give immediate and prominent display to Wilson's partisan appeal, moving picture managers are told to show slides urging a democratic congress, and Italian papers are told to play up the statement that President Wilson and the democratic administration have loaned the Italian government $760,000,000. These are only a few of the many instances where the democratic administration is diverting and prostituting to base partisan advantage and profit the machinery of the government and the organizations set up to win the war, organizations paid for out of the public funds.

Director General McAdoo has warned three million railroad employees in his department not to take any part in national politics, but he and his associates higher up in the railroad administration are guilty of constant and pernicious activities in politics, using all the influence in their power to elect a democratic congress.

Paying Tribute to Cotton

According to a compilation made public October 3, 1918, by the Department of Labor, fuel and light have advanced 80 per cent, housing 13 per cent, and food of all kinds an average of 83 per cent. The highest advance in living costs has been in clothing. Men's clothing has increased 105 per cent, women's clothing 118 per cent.

The report of the Railroad Wage Commission shows that common calico, which formerly sold for 6 cents a yard, now sells for 30 cents, an increase of 400 percent! Working men's overalls have increased 150 per cent, work shirts 200 per cent, boys' blouses 130 per cent, socks and stockings 125 percent, gingham 125 per cent, muslin 120 per cent, and household textiles 130 per cent!

No clothing or textiles are being made of wool. The government has fixed a price on wool and commandeered the entire supply, both domestic and imported. Textiles and clothing are being made of cotton. The increase the workingman and farmer of the north is paying on clothing and household textiles is the direct result of the profiteering of the southern cotton powers which dominate Congress, sit in the cabinet and have prevented any fixing of a price on cotton. Every household is paying a heavy tax to the cotton profiteers, a tribute to the southern domination of Congress.

Democratic leaders, growing alarmed at the rising protests against the increased cost of clothing, due to the extortionate methods of the Southern cotton interests, recently issued a statement to the effect that the price of clothing would be fixed in the near future. This statement must be taken with a grain of salt because the same week that it was issued Mr. Clarence Ousley, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, announced that the cotton trade and the cotton interests had nothing to fear from the action of the War Industries Board. Mr. Ousley said there had not been from the beginning, nor is there now, any purpose or desire to fix cotton prices.

This statement has been confirmed by Thomas W. Page, chairman of the Cotton Inquiry Committee, which was appointed some time ago for the ostensible purpose of ascertaining whether or not there should be a price fixed on cotton. Mr. Page announces that "the committee will not recommend that a price be fixed on raw cotton at the present time."

As president of the United States, Mr. Wilson is possessed, under the Constitution, of certain power and authority therein defined. In dispatching so-called personal representatives to foreign countries, he has repeatedly exceeded his authority, overreached his power and violated the constitution he is sworn to support and uphold. These personal representatives are responsible to no one except Mr. Wilson personally—not even the senate of the United States which under the constitution, is supposed to enjoy the power to confirm or reject presidential appointments.

In his carefully-timed appeal for support of his partisan purposes and aims—appeal for the continued domination of the country by the unreconstructed south, Mr. Wilson has chosen deliberately to ignore the generous support of the war in men and money freely given by the great republican states of the north, likewise, the scant support of the south.

The great republican states of the north are not unmindful, however, that most of the money raised to prosecute the war has come from their citizens: nor have they failed to note that democratic congress, which Mr. Wilson asks to have returned, has spent most of this money in the south.

In spite of Mr. Wilson's announcement at the beginning of this campaign that "politics is adjourned" he has completely established his suspected insincerity by choosing an apparently opportune moment, within a few days of the election and when effective rejoinders are difficult, to reconvene politics in strictly partisan appeal for the election of a democratic congress that has no analogy in American political history. The president's effort to excuse his act by reference to the republican campaign of 1898 fails entirely because the Spanish-American war was over before that campaign began. In the other great crisis of this country, Abraham Lincoln exhorted the people of this country to rise above political parties in selecting men for public office.

Trained Nurse Tells of Treatment For Influenza.

Gentlemen:—For the benefit of thousands who are suffering with La Grippe or Influenza I feel it my duty to tell others about your wonderful remedy Hull's Superlative Compound. It was through this remedy that I became interested in medicine and nursing and 17 years ago entered the City Hospital at Indianapolis, Ind., from which I graduated and became a registered nurse of Indiana. I believe Hull's Superlative to be the most efficient all around Family Medicine on the market, as it has never failed in families to whom I have recommended it, to break up Colds, La Grippe, Tonsilitis, Influenza, Bilious fever, acute indigestion, and I find it also to be a splendid blood builder. Every family in the country now especially needs Hull's superlative for by having this remedy in the home and beginning to take it on the first symptoms of chills it will ward off the severest part of the disease. I received the best results for influenza by taking one-third teaspoonful every two hours for five doses, following with from 1 to 2 tablespoonful of castor oil or epsom salts, then continuing the medicine by taking from 6 to 10 drops 3 times a day. The patient goes into a heavy perspiration and should be kept under cover not allowing the draft to reach them, although plenty of fresh air in the room. I must say I never though I would relish the idea of having my name used for advertising but I feel it my duty in this crisis of the dreadful disease influenza, which is proving so fatal to so many, to recommend it to others for their help. Wish I could tell thousands of mothers of the merit of this wonderful medicine.

Yours very sincerely,

MRS. J. H. DIXON, R. N.
401 Middle St., Dayton, O.

Hull's Superlative is a root and bark remedy, rich in Peruvian Bark, fever breaker, Golden Seal the greatest known vegetable antiseptic and other ingredients as good as those mentioned. Hundreds testify to great good received. Be sure and keep it in the house. LaGrippe comes almost at once without warning. Then is when you need Hull's Superlative.

President Lincoln said:

This is a Government of the people, by the people and for the people.

President Wilson says:

No candidate who is a member of President Lincoln's party should be elected to Congress. If the President dictates who shall sit as Congressmen, then this nation is no longer a Government of the people.

Are You Ready for a Political Dictator?

In fighting a World War against Autocracy abroad, we should not surrender our Democracy at Home.

Champ Clark, Democratic Speaker of the House of Representatives, in discussing the Draft law said that the word Conscript to him meant the same as Convict. He now looks upon that great body of the army of the United States as a body of Convicts.

Regardless of the feelings of the fathers and mothers of our soldier boys, President Wilson asks that Champ Clark be re-elected and that no true, red blooded Republican be sent to Congress.

Remember This Next Tuesday

Autocracy or Democracy?

William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of President Wilson, as

Secretary of the Treasury,
Head of the Nation's Banking System,
Director General of All Railroads,
General Manager of All Express Companies,
Has Unexampled Power For Political Use.

HOW MUCH POWER SHOULD ONE MAN HAVE IN A DEMOCRACY? Answer Next Tuesday.

Should Republicans Have a Voice in the Management of Their Country?

Within the past few months the Government has actually appropriated more money than had been expended from the days of Washington to those of Wilson.

The National pay-rolls are overloaded with "Deserving Democrats."

All of these vast appropriations and expenditures are under the direction and control of a comparatively few Southern democrats who dominate the democratic party.

Under these conditions do you think republicans should have any representation in Congress?

President Wilson says not.

What Do You Say, Mr. Voter

A Country Without a Representative

In the War Conferences held at Versailles with our Allies the United States is without Official Representation. England, France, Belgium and Italy sent men to these conferences, having official connection with their respective governments, and those officials have power to act. Not so the United States.

President Wilson sent the mysterious Col. "John Doe" House as his personal representative, not the representative of his nation, who has no power to act for the country. He is instructed to make no agreement with the Representatives of our Allies, but merely to report matters to President Wilson, for his approval or disapproval.

This is humiliating to us as a nation, and discourteous to our Allies.

The Republicans believe that men should be named by the President and confirmed by the Senate in the regular manner to Officially Represent Our Country.

HOWARD CAMPBELL

Republican Candidate for the Office of
COUNTY RECORDER

He was born in Rush county; has lived in the county all his life. Is a graduate of the common schools of Orange Township and of the Milroy High School.

He solicits the support of the voters of Rush county and will be grateful for all assistance given his candidacy.

2 CARTONS ISSUED ON THE FIRST DAY

Miss Fern McBride and Mary Ruth
Junken Present Christmas Labels
To Committee.

TO SEND GIFTS OVERSEAS

The first cartons for shipping Christmas gifts to soldiers overseas which have lately been received by the Rush county chapter of the Red Cross, were given out yesterday afternoon by the special committee which will be at headquarters in the recorder's office in the court house every afternoon from one to five o'clock, for this purpose.

Mary Ruth Junken was the first person to present a Christmas parcel label, which was sent from overseas by Benjamin H. Cottrill, and to receive a carton in which she will pack her gifts and return to the committee for inspection and mailing. Miss Fern McBride of Mays was the other person to receive a carton. She had a label from her brother Guy McBride, who is in France.

The Rush County Council of Defense is in receipt of the bulletin from the State Council of Defense explaining the rules regulating the sending of Christmas packages to soldiers abroad or at home. A number of conflicting reports have been circulated concerning the regulations governing the sending of Christmas boxes to soldiers, sailors and marines overseas. The various departments have issued special orders for the different branches of service, and these must be followed to the letter to insure the safe delivery of packages to men now abroad.

The war department regulations will be observed in the case of every marine whose address is American Expeditionary Force. For all other marines whether in training or serving actively in this country at naval posts and stations at home and abroad, or on ship duty, navy regulations will govern.

Packages must comply with postal regulations and should be enclosed in substantial boxes with hinged or screw-top cover to facilitate opening and inspecting. When sent by express all boxes are limited to twenty pounds in weight, should measure not more than 2 cubic feet in volume, be of wood, well strapped, and these boxes should also have a hinged or screw-top.

No perishable food products, only those inclosed in cans or glass jars, should be packed in parcels post or express shipments. All packages for vessels abroad should be mailed not later than November 15.

After a series of conferences by the adjutant general of the war department, the Postoffice department and the American Red Cross, rules have been formulated for the sending of packages to soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force.

Packages must be of standard size and weight, and may be sent only by people who have received labels from a soldier in the service. These labels will serve as address labels for packages. On receiving a Christmas package label the person to whom it has been sent should present it to the nearest chapter headquarters of the Red Cross where he will receive a carton of required size. The carton is then filled with articles not barred by postal officials, and no note or message or written matter of any kind will be permitted to remain in the boxes. When preparing Christmas parcels, relatives and friends are urged to bear in mind the fact that only things that will keep fresh until Christmas should be put in the packages; give preference to hard candy over chocolates unless the latter are wrapped very securely; do not put articles packed in glass in the packages and wrap the gifts in a khaki colored handkerchief 27 inches square.

When the box is filled, it should be taken unwrapped and unsealed to the Red Cross Committee, together with the address label and sufficient postage to carry it by parcel post to Hoboken, New Jersey and left with the inspectors until delivery to the postal authorities.

No packages will be accepted by the local committee after November 15.

A Woman's Hearty Recommendation.

Worry and overwork caused kidney trouble, and women suffer equally with men. Miss Sara Westen, Belvidere, Ill., writes: "I could not stoop down and when I was down I had to crawl up by a chair. I was so lame I suffered agony. Now I feel like a new person, strong and better in every way. My general health is quite improved. I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all suffering the way I did." They relieve dizziness, puffiness under eyes, sore muscles and joints and rheumatic pains when caused by disordered kidneys. ### TO THE VOTERS OF RUSH COUNTY:

I desire to ask your consideration of my candidacy for the office of County Treasurer. With an experience of three years as deputy county treasurer, I feel I can assure you efficient service in the conduct of the office.

There are many instances in which a County Treasurer can be of real benefit to the tax-payer in questions regarding his taxes, and often in the adjustment of his taxes. If elected, my sole business will be to render to the tax-payers of the county the highest standard of service of which I am capable.

Since the opening of the active campaign, the heavy work of the office, incident to tax-paying time, has made it impossible for me to make a personal canvass of the voters. Under these conditions I take this method of asking your support and of assuring you of my deepest appreciation of any assistance you may give my candidacy.

Sincerely yours,
CHARLES A. FRAZEE.

STAND BY YOUR FRIENDS

MR. FARMER,
MR. RAILROAD MAN,
MR. LABORING MAN,

No other administration since the beginning of this Republic ever looked so carefully and so successfully after your interests as that of Woodrow Wilson.

His first thought all the time has been to look after the welfare of those who were not in a position to dictate the price of their product or what they had to sell. He saw that you were well paid for everything.

Never in the history of this or any other government have the farmers and the men who work for wages made so much money or lived so well. President Wilson believes and acts on the theory that of the great mass of the people, which is made up of farmers and wage earners, are prosperous the balance of the country is bound to thrive. He has demonstrated that his plan is right.

Are you going to stand by the President that has done more for you and your family than any other President ever has done?

You know what President Wilson and a Democratic administration has done for you, then why trade off a sure thing for an uncertainty. When you get a good friend, stay with him.

All that President Wilson asks of you is to give him a Democratic Congress next time, the same as he has now. His candidate for congress in this district is Harry G. Strickland.

The members of the Woman's Council will hold their monthly meeting Monday evening in the directors' room of the Rushville National bank at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Clorene Amos, a bride-elect, was the honor guest at a prettily appointed twelve o'clock dinner given by the Misses Jessie and Mary Anderson Friday at their country home south of the city. The guests were seated at the dining table which had a huge bouquet of lavender and white chrysanthemums in the center, and places were marked for Miss Amos, Miss Georgia Amos, Miss Nettie Clark, Miss Lucile Linn, Miss Hannah Morris, Miss Fanny Stiers, Miss Helen Seudder, Miss Mayme Hiner, Mrs. Walter Capp, Mrs. Neff Ashworth, and Mrs. Hale Pearsey.

The members of the Monday Circle will continue their meetings Monday afternoon, with the October 21 program, at the home of Miss Jennie Madden in North Main street.

Mrs. Lee Endres will be hostess Monday evening for the members of the Kappa Kappa Kappa sorority at her home in North Perkins street.

The members of the Epworth League will hold their first meeting since their long adjournment, Sunday, at the usual time at the St. Paul's M. E. church. Special music is promised and an interesting address will be given by Lieut. Earl Marlatt.

Miss Mary Louise Poe will sing a solo "When the Boy's come Back" and also a solo will be rendered by Francis Coyne entitled "Laddie and Khaki."

A prettily appointed Halloween pitch-in dinner was given Thursday night at the home of Miss Beulah Meredith in North Harrison street. Yellow and black formed the predominating color scheme throughout the spacious rooms. The dining room table was beautifully adorned with a French basket filled with asters of varied hues. The guests for the occasion were Miss Aelsah Retherford, Miss Louise Hogsett, Miss Helen Dugan, Miss Kathleen Hogsett, Miss Ruth Higgins. After dinner the guests dressed in quaint costumes and called on their friends.

NEPHEW KILLED IN ACTION

Word has been received by W. A. Wylie, 824 N. Arthur street, that his nephew, corporal Leora M. Wease of C. M. 120th Infantry, 30th Division, was killed in action September 9. The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. William Ash, of this city, and lived in Versailles, Indiana.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE— DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brest Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the "tender spot" and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 30 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

Mrs. Henry Alsop.

Grace Lavon Early was born in Rushville, Ind., July 14, 1886, and departed this life Sunday afternoon, October 27, 1918, making her age 32 years, 3 months and 13 days. She was united in marriage to Henry Alsop October 29, 1903. Fifteen years ago the marriage altar, today the bier and the open grave. Two children have come to bless their home, Florence, age 11 and Lawrence, age 7. Her first public step in the christian life was to unite with the Primitive Baptist church and was baptized April 27, 1902. Some years later and after her marriage on October 16, 1908, she and her husband united with the First Baptist church, where she has loyally served and wrought for the Master.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband and the two children above mentioned. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Early; two sisters, Mrs. Jess Black of this city and Mrs. Maud Tatlock of Columbus, Ind., and one brother, Clyde Early now in the service of his country, and located at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. There are many who feel the weight of her loss and mingle their tears with the near relatives on this sad occasion.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep! A calm and undisturbed repose Unbroken by the last of foes.

Asleep in Jesus, oh how sweet, To be for such a slumber meet! With holy confidence to sing, That death has lost his venom'd sting.

Asleep in Jesus, peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest! No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour, That manifests the saviour's power.

Asleep in Jesus, Oh for me, May such a blissful refuge be! Securely shall my ashes lie, Waiting the summons from on high.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR

[ Prosecuting Attorney ]

65th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT. RUSH COUNTY.

I find that I will be unable to see all the voters of the county personally. I believe I understand the duties of the office. If elected, I expect to fully discharge my duties as such officer. The people of the county are entitled to security and happiness, and protection of their property. On the other hand, innocent persons should not be prosecuted and subjected to annoyance and even disgrace; nor should they or the county be subjected to the expense of abortive trials. If the policies above outlined are satisfactory to you, I respectfully solicit your vote and assure you of my gratitude for your consideration of my candidacy.

Yours very truly,

Valenciennes Wholly in The Hands of The British

have been taken. Seven villages were captured.

The attack began at five o'clock this morning, following two hours of artillery preparation.

Cold, dry weather favored the attack. The American left wing encountered hard going in the Loges wood, but finally drove the Germans out of their dense covering there.

The right wing has approached to within less than a mile of the important base of Dur Sur Meuse.

Valenciennes Encircled

With the Allied Armies in Flanders, Nov. 2.—Valenciennes is practically in the hands of the Canadians.

The attack which began yesterday morning, resulted in almost complete encirclement to the city.

The Rhonelle river, flowing eastward from that city, is filled with German dead. A captured officer declared that a little more pressure will end the German army resistance.

Clear Asiago Plateau

Rome, Nov. 2.—Italian troops have practically cleared the Asiago plateau, capturing a number of important villages and taking 3,000 additional prisoners, the war office announced today. The Livenza river has been crossed on a wide front. Italian patrols have reached the Tagliamento river.

23 Divisions Desert Austria

Zurich, Nov. 2.—Twenty-three Austrian divisions have mutinied and deserted the Italian front and are fighting among each other, according to reports received here.

French and Yanks Advance

London, Nov. 2.—French and American troops after carrying the heights of the Lys and the Scheldt rivers, are advancing on a front of nearly ten miles along the latter stream, Field Marshal Haig announced today. The Franco-Americans, in two days fighting, have advance from five to ten miles, capturing nineteen villages.

IF THEN— WHY NOT NOW?

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH DELIVERED AT CARNEGIE HALL, NEW YORK CITY, OCTOBER 6, 1898.

"I should ask the people of this country to support the administration of President McKinley, if for no other reason than because, say what you like, the victory at the polls of the men who are opposing and denouncing the administration in this election will be interpreted abroad as meaning on the part of America a repudiation of the war from which we have just emerged triumphant. It will strengthen the hands of every hostile power which views with jealousy our victories in the Antilles and the Philippines. It will mean that the nations that now secretly and enviously wish to clip the wings of our pride will be emboldened. It will result in the partial undoing of what our army and navy have accomplished. It will mean the chance of grave complications and the likelihood of our meeting obstacles when it comes to reaping the fruit of our triumph."

VOTE FOR HARRY G. STRICKLAND FOR CONGRESS

INDIANAPOLIS NEWS EDITORIAL, OCTOBER 20, 1898.

"It is not wise to swap horses when you are crossing the stream; was one of the wise sayings of Abraham Lincoln. Is not that applicable to the present state of National Politics? We are in the midst of problems growing out of the war. It is true, to be sure, that in the war there was no partisanship; that congress to a man supported the administration on the main question. But in the questions now to come up, politics will be sure to play a great part. It is better for all concerned that the President should be supported by a congress in which his own party is in the majority. Besides all that, the return of a Democratic majority would surely be interpreted abroad as a condemnation of the Administration."

Abdication of Kaiser Considered Fact;
Fighting Fronts of World War AblazePUBLICATION IS DELAYED
FOR FAVORABLE OPPORTUNITY

Geneva Dispatch to Paris Says Abdication May be Regarded as True. Terms of Armistice Render it Impossible For Austria to Resume War or to Use Them to Get Out of Bad Situation.

GERMAN ARMISTICE TO BE STIFFER

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 2.—King Boris has abdicated and a Bulgarian republic has been established, according to a Central News dispatch today.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Abdication of the kaiser may be considered to be a fact, according to a Geneva dispatch to the Tempa.

The dispatch said that official publication is being delayed awaiting a favorable opportunity.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Terms for an armistice, which has been presented to Austria, are based on President Wilson's fourteen principles, according to a Rome dispatch today.

They render it impossible for Austria to resume the war or to use the armistice to get out of a bad situation.

An answer is not expected immediately, as the Austro-Hungarian representatives probably will refer it to their superiors.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The terms which the allies are offering to Germany "will be stiffer than those which Turkey was forced to accept," a well informed diplomat stated today.

"Germany will accept stronger terms than is generally believed," he said. He expressed the opinion that Germany probably would yield to almost any limit the allied terms might go.

Punishment for the kaiser and the Prussian war lords guilty of the German crimes of the last four years, will be meted out in summary matter by the German people, diplomatic advisers indicated.

The naval section of the armistice terms to be given Germany was in possession of the governments today. No announcement of their contents was made but assurances were given by high officials that every safeguard had been taken in these terms and that they would meet the requirements of every prudent man, so that travel will be safe on all the seas.

Discuss Austrian Armistice.

Geneva, Nov. 2.—Austrian and Italian delegates have arrived in Switzerland.

This delegation probably went to a neutral country to discuss the proposed armistice terms.

Szech-Slovak and Jugo Slav delegations met Thursday night and conferred regarding the armistice which they would be willing to grant to Austria. After this session a joint delegation left for Paris to report the conclusions to the inter-allied diplomatic conference.

Paris, Nov. 2.—The interallied council at Versailles has forwarded to General Diaz, commander of the Italian armies, the terms of the armistice to be granted the Austrians, a newspaper declared today.

The interallied council unanimously agreed upon every clause in the terms, it was stated.

ELECTION SUPPLIES
DISTRIBUTED TODAY

Inspectors Call at Clerk's Office For Ballots—Voting Places All the Same.

VOTES CAST UNDER NEW LAW

Precinct election inspectors called for their supplies today in preparation for the election next Tuesday. The clerk of the election board, George B. Moore, Jr., had the required number of ballots and other supplies for each precinct wrapped in bundles ready to be delivered to the inspectors.

Voters will vote in the same places they did in the general election two years ago. In the majority of precincts, the voting places are the same as they have been for a number of years.

The election board was busy today compiling affidavits under the absent voters law. It was expected that approximately four hundred voters, including soldiers in training camps in this country, would cast their ballots under the provision of this law. No blanks for absent voters were issued after last night, according to the law, and no votes from voters absent from their precinct can be counted unless they reach the board by election day.

Indiana Anti-Saloon League Says Democratic Candidate For Congress is "Wet."

G. O. P. CANDIDATE IS "DRY"

Record of Two Men in State Legislature Compared—Elliott Same in Congress.

Characterizing Richard N. Elliott of Connersville, republican congressman from this district and candidate for re-election next Tuesday, as a friend of temperance, and Harry Strickland of Greenfield, his democratic opponent, as a "subservient tool of the liquor interests," the Indiana Anti-Saloon League has addressed letters to Rushville men urging the election of Congressman Elliott. It is presumed that similar letters have been sent throughout the sixth district. The records of the two men when they were in the state legislature are compared.

E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana League, who wrote the letter, points out that the congress which will be elected next Tuesday should be friendly to the temperance movement because it will have the responsibility of enacting legislation to give enforcement to the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution. Belt Buckle Reveals How Kaiser Emphasizes Idea of God Being With the Germans

Trophies of war from the St. Mihiel sector, from which the Hunns were driven by the Yankees in twenty-four hours, several weeks ago, are on display in one of the show windows at the J. W. Hogsett dry goods store and form a very interesting exhibit, especially since they have a background of beautiful posters advertising the United War Work campaign, which will be conducted November 11 to 18.

The helmets, gas masks, bayonets, belts and other paraphernalia worn by German soldiers were brought home by Private Hines H. Hogsett, 101st Field Signal Battalion, 26th division, a nephew of J. W. Hogsett, who went to Fort Woods, N. Y. a few days ago, after a furlough with his parents here, with the expectation of being assigned to duty in this country.

Ban To Be Lifted Here
As Was First Announced

Although State Board Announces in Indianapolis Statements Order May Not be Rescinded in Rush County, Telegram From Dr. Hurty Leaves Matter to Discretion of Local Health Officers.

CITY SCHOOLS TO REMAIN CLOSED

When the state board of health gave out statements to Indianapolis newspapers to the effect that Rush county was one county in the state in which the ban on public meetings would not be lifted, Dr. E. I. Wooden, county health officer, called Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner this morning, to learn what the state board's orders really were. Yesterday morning Dr. Hurty told Dr. Wooden that the ban could be lifted here.

While Dr. Wooden was talking to Capt. King, Hurty's assistant, over the telephone shortly before noon, a telegram came from Dr. Hurty, recommending that the ban not be lifted in this county, but leaving the matter to the discretion of the county and city health officers.

Dr. Wooden then announced that the orders would be rescinded in the county and that the city board of health could decide whether or not the restrictions should be continued in Rushville. The city board met shortly before noon and decided, since no new cases had been reported Continued on Page Two

VALIENCENNES WHOLLY IN THE HANDS OF THE BRITISH

City is Taken This Morning After Hard Fighting and Battle Continues on Six-Mile Front to the Southward. Four Thousand More Prisoners Taken. Austrian Piave Army Threatened With Encirclement.

ENEMY TRENTINO ARMY IS PURSUED

(By United Press)

London, Nov. 2.—Valenciennes is wholly in the hands of the British, Field Marshal Haig announced today.

The city was taken this morning after hard fighting and a battle is continuing on a six-mile front south of the city. Several counter-attacks were repulsed. Four thousand additional prisoners were taken.

With the Italian Armies in the Field, Nov. 2.—The Italians following collapse of the Grappa defense, are steadily driving the Austrian Trentino army northward across the mountains toward the frontier.

At the same time the enemy's Piave army, completely cut off from the other Austrian forces, is being pursued across the Venetian plains, constantly under threat of encirclement from the north.

Columns of light cavalry and light infantry are searching the entire southern foothills of the Alps, cutting off the possibility of the Austrians escaping northward from the Venetian plains.

SEVEN SELECTS
LOOK FOR ACTION

Are Listed for Voluntary Induction On Motor Transport Call For Overseas Service.

ALL QUESTIONNAIRES MAILED

Total of 747 Returned up to This Morning—of 47 Classified Friday, 27 Are in Class 1.

Seven Rush county military registrants have been listed for induction on the call for general service or limited service men for motor transport overseas. The fact that the call said registrants who were inducted would probably see overseas service in ninety days, is believed responsible for the rush to get in because they want action.

In addition to Ralph Nipp, who was mentioned as an applicant yesterday, the following are seeking to be inducted under this call: Harry Hackman, Lowell Smalley, Donald Meyers and Hugh Jones, all of this city, Albert N. Gahimer of near Manilla and LeRoy Crawford of Carthage. All of these are held for general service. It rests with the camp commander at Newport News, Va., where the registrants will be sent on this call; whether a limited service man is qualified.

Paul Craig of near Lewisville went to Indianapolis today and was voluntarily inducted into the marine corps. He was held for general service. Continued on Page Two

Land on Austrian Coast.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Italian forces, accompanied by American troops, have effected a landing on the Austrian coast of the Adriatic near Pola, a Swiss dispatch received here today through diplomatic channels announced. It was announced that the landing party is under the protection of the entente Adriatic fleet, now in absolute control of Adriatic waters.

Widen Gap in Hun Lines

With the American Armies, Nov. 2.—The American center today continued exploitation of its gains on the Freya line, while the wings pushed ahead and widened the gap in the last organized fortification.

The artillery is fairly smothering the Germans, facilitating the movement of our infantry. The fighting is growing in intensity all along the line.

Resume Aisne Attack

Paris, Nov. 2.—The Franco-American attack on the Aisne front, which is being carried out in conjunction with the American drive west of the Meuse, was resumed this morning, the French war office announced.

Fourteen hundred additional prisoners have been taken so far.

4 Mile Gain on 20-Mile Front

With The American Army in France, Nov. 2.—The Americans, with the French co-operating, have advanced more than four miles in an attack on a 20-mile front between the Aisne and the Meuse.

A deep wedge has been driven into the German line, increasing the menace to the enemy's vital communications. More than 4,000 prisoners. Continued on Page Eight in Rushville since Thursday—and then only two on that day—that it would be safe to allow public meetings as usual after midnight tonight.

The city school board met with Superintendent J. H. Scholt this morning and reached the decision that, despite the fact that the ban was lifted in the city, it would be the safest course not to open the schools next week.

So the result of today's orders is that all gatherings will be permitted as usual, beginning tomorrow morning, with the exception that the Rushville public schools will not open Monday morning. Announcement will be made later when the city schools will reopen. Church services will be held tomorrow as previously announced.

After the meeting of the city board of health this morning, two new cases were reported to the secretary.

Repairing a Manure Spreader.

One of the strong inducements in favor of our handling and pushing the sale of the "RUSHVILLE SPECIAL" Manure Spreader is the REPAIR question. Sometimes our customers think we make a lot of money on repairs—a good deal more than we do.
But we like to keep away from the repair question if we can, and in selling a machine, if we could get one that would never have a repair on it until it was entirely and completely worn out, this would be the kind we would sell every time.

Our manure spreader which we have been talking to you about and which is proving so effective in the field, comes as near being repair proof as any machine we ever saw. The reason it requires little or no repairs is the very same reason that gives it such light draft and it is because of this reason that it is sold under a FIVE YEAR GUARANTEE.

The machinery runs so light and there is so little friction that the team does not apply power enough to the machine to wear it out.
If it doesn't wear out it doesn't need repairs. This is our simple analysis and it is a true one.

Some machines simply tear themselves to pieces and are constantly in the repair shop or being tinkered-up in one way or another, not because the owners abuse or misuse or are neglectful of them, but simply because they won't stand the racket. We don't have to expert our spreader, don't have to look after it—it takes care of itself and we eliminate the repair question. Come and see it.

the first since Thursday. The county health commissioner reported nine new cases to the state board last night, making a total of 653 reported during the epidemic. Some of these nine cases developed on October 27, almost a week ago. One more death today brought the total to fifteen.

Health officials were astonished,
after the conversation between Dr.
Hurty and Dr. Wooden yesterday morning, that the state board should give statements that the ban would probably not be lifted here tonight.
The following telegram received this morning, however, gave the local officers permission to use their own discretion:

"The state board of health closing order expires at midnight Nov. 2.
Recommended the ban should not be lifted in your county except as you think advisable. Direct you confer with city health officers. If you decide restrictions are necessary, then advise the state board. Continue daily reports."

The city health secretary announced that no persons who are ill, or sneezers or coughers will be permitted in public meetings. There will be a policeman stationed at the moving picture theaters and persons who violate these orders will be forcibly ejected if necessary, he stated.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

And Dizziness Relieved By Black-Draught, Says Ohio Lady.

Coalton, Ohio.—Mrs. Lucy J. Beatty, of R. F. D. 1, this place, writes: "Some time ago I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach. It seemed there was a hard lump formed in my stomach. This lump was sore and every time I would eat I would feel bloated and pained terribly. It would seem to come up toward my chest.

I would have smothering spells and feel dizzy. I would start across the floor and would have to sit down. At night I smothered so I couldn't sleep. I would go to bed and wake with a start and feel like I would smother to death. The doctors said it was my age and doctored and doctored, and I didn't get any better.

I was almost discouraged so I began to look around for other remedies and while reading the Almanac I decided to try Black-Draught, which I did. I bought two packages and took it regular for awhile and it cured me and I don't have any more trouble of that kind."

If you suffer from stomach and liver troubles, give Theodor's Black-Draught a trial. It has helped thousands of others—why not you? All druggists. NCB-16

TROPHIES OF WAR

PUT ON DISPLAY

The first time such a variety of German soldier equipment has been shown in Rushville. Most interesting of all the articles are the gas masks, one which the Germans wear and one which the English and Americans wear.

The Hun gas mask is a clumsy affair as compared with the one worn by the Yankee or British Tommy. It is not perfected like the allied mask. The American gas mask in the display was the one carried by Private Hogsett during his more than seven months of service in France. It consists of a chemical can connected to the mouthpiece with heavy rubber hose, a clamp fitting over the nose which makes breathing through the nose impossible, and a mask made of heavy material which fits closely over the face.

Two helmets are in the display—one the heavy dome-shaped contraption of the German soldier and the other the lighter helmet, with a flat crown, which is worn by the English and Americans. The one shown in the local store was worn by Private Hogsett. Private Hogsett, in explaining how he came by the Boche helmet, said he did not take it from a prisoner, but told him to hand it over, which he very promptly did.

One of the German short bayonets, which looks like it might serve also as a trench knife for digging, or for protection in hand-to-hand encounter is an interesting piece in the exhibit. It has a sharp and a blunt edge just like a knife, and a very sharp point. It is carried in a leather case by the German soldier and hangs on his belt. The one Private Hogsett brought home sports a tassel and was taken from a non-commissioned officer. Private Hogsett says the common soldier does not wear such fancy trappings. The belt which the Hun soldier wears is also interesting in that it shows how the Kaiser emphasizes the fact that God is supposed to be with the German. The silver-colored buckle on the belt bears the inscription, "Got Mit Uns" and a picture of the crown.

The display also contains an Austrian medal, a German bed sack

made of paper and a book in German explaining the parts of the light Minenwerfers, or trench mortars, which was found by Private Hogsett in a Boche cement dugout. The bed sack is new and was taken from a factory where they were being made, which was captured by Americans. There are also two French shells—17's. The Americans use the same shell, only they call them "one-pounds".

Private Hogsett also brought home with him some French money. In the window display are a 50-centime note worth about ten cents in American money and a 2-franc note worth about forty cents in American money. Both pieces are provincial money and are good only around Brest. Such money has to be changed to silver in traveling from one province to another. There is also a silver piece in the collection. Private Hogsett brought the trophies home with him in the trench sack which was issued to him when he embarked for overseas service.

STRICKLAND TOOL OF LIQUOR INTERESTS

Situation, which has been passed by congress and will undoubtedly be ratified by the required thirty-six states before the new congress meets. Supt. Shumaker says everything depends upon the election of a congress friendly to this prohibition amendment, "for such a congress will enact effective enforcement measures, while one friendly to the liquor interests can not be trusted to do so."

Regarding the record of the two candidates, the letter says:

"Richard N. Elliott, present republican congressman from the sixth district, voted in congress for the submission of the prohibition amendment to the states. He has also voted for every other temperance measure which has come before congress. Besides this, as a member of the Indiana legislature, in 1905, 1907, and 1908, he voted for the Moore remonstrance, blind tiger and county option laws. His record is clear and on the temperance issue he is altogether trustworthy.

"Harry Strickland, the democratic opponent, had a long record in the Indiana Legislature as a subservient tool of the liquor interests. He voted against the enactment of the blind tiger law in 1907, against the county option law in 1908, and in favor of the repeal of the county option law in the legislative sessions of 1909 and 1911. His record is entirely against him, and he should be defeated.

"We recommend the above, not because Mr. Elliott is a republican, but because he is dry, and not because Mr. Strickland is a democrat, but because his entire legislative record shows him to be wet, and unworthy the support of temperance people.

"We hope, therefore, that regardless of party, temperance forces in the sixth congressional district will unite and work for the election of Richard N. Elliott."

subscriptions for "an emergency fund," foreign language papers are being told to give immediate and prominent display to Wilson's partisan appeal, moving picture managers are told to show slides urging a democratic congress, and Italian papers are told to play up the statement that President Wilson and the democratic administration have loaned the Italian government $760,000,000. These are only a few of the many instances where the democratic administration is diverting and prostituting to base partisan advantage and profit the machinery of the government and the organizations set up to win the war, organizations paid for out of the public funds.

Director General McAdoo has warned three million railroad employees in his department not to take any part in national politics, but he and his associates higher up in the railroad administration are guilty of constant and pernicious activities in politics, using all the influence in their power to elect a democratic congress.

Paying Tribute to Cotton

According to a compilation made public October 3, 1918, by the Department of Labor, fuel and light have advanced 80 per cent, housing 13 per cent, and food of all kinds an average of 83 per cent. The highest advance in living costs has been in clothing. Men's clothing has increased 105 per cent, women's clothing 118 per cent.

The report of the Railroad Wage Commission shows that common calico, which formerly sold for 6 cents a yard, now sells for 30 cents, an increase of 400 percent! Working men's overalls have increased 150 per cent, work shirts 200 per cent, boys' blouses 130 per cent, socks and stockings 125 percent, gingham 125 per cent, muslin 120 per cent, and household textiles 130 per cent!

No clothing or textiles are being made of wool. The government has fixed a price on wool and commandeered the entire supply, both domestic and imported. Textiles and clothing are being made of cotton. The increase the workingman and farmer of the north is paying on clothing and household textiles is the direct result of the profiteering of the southern cotton powers which dominate Congress, sit in the cabinet and have prevented any fixing of a price on cotton. Every household is paying a heavy tax to the cotton profiteers, a tribute to the southern domination of Congress.

Democratic leaders, growing alarmed at the rising protests against the increased cost of clothing, due to the extortionate methods of the Southern cotton interests, recently issued a statement to the effect that the price of clothing would be fixed in the near future. This statement must be taken with a grain of salt because the same week that it was issued Mr. Clarence Ousley, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, announced that the cotton trade and the cotton interests had nothing to fear from the action of the War Industries Board. Mr. Ousley said there had not been from the beginning, nor is there now, any purpose or desire to fix cotton prices.

This statement has been confirmed by Thomas W. Page, chairman of the Cotton Inquiry Committee, which was appointed some time ago for the ostensible purpose of ascertaining whether or not there should be a price fixed on cotton. Mr. Page announces that "the committee will not recommend that a price be fixed on raw cotton at the present time."

As president of the United States, Mr. Wilson is possessed, under the Constitution, of certain power and authority therein defined. In dispatching so-called personal representatives to foreign countries, he has repeatedly exceeded his authority, overreached his power and violated the constitution he is sworn to support and uphold. These personal representatives are responsible to no one except Mr. Wilson personally—not even the senate of the United States which under the constitution, is supposed to enjoy the power to confirm or reject presidential appointments.

In his carefully-timed appeal for support of his partisan purposes and aims—appeal for the continued domination of the country by the un-reconstructed south, Mr. Wilson has chosen deliberately to ignore the generous support of the war in men and money freely given by the great republican states of the north, likewise, the scant support of the south

The great republican states of the north are not unmindful, however, that most of the money raised to prosecute the war has come from their citizens; nor have they failed to note that democratic congress, which Mr. Wilson asks to have returned, has spent most of this money in the south.

In spite of Mr. Wilson's announcement at the beginning of this campaign that "politics is adjourned" he has completely established his suspected insincerity by choosing an apparently opportune moment, within a few days of the election and when effective rejoinders are difficult, to reconvene politics in strictly partisan appeal for the election of a democratic congress that has no analogy in American political history. The president's effort to excuse his act by reference to the republican campaign of 1896 fails entirely because the Spanish-American war was over before that campaign began. In the other great crisis of this country, Abraham Lincoln exhorted the people of this country to rise above political parties in selecting men for public office.

Trained Nurse Tells of Treatment For Influenza.

Gentlemen:—For the benefit of thousands who are suffering with La Grippe or Influenza I feel it my duty to tell others about your wonderful remedy Hull's Superlative Compound. It was through this remedy that I became interested in medicine and nursing and 17 years ago entered the City Hospital at Indianapolis, Ind., from which I graduated and became a registered nurse of Indiana. I believe Hull's Superlative to be the most efficient all around Family Medicine on the market, as it has never failed in families to whom I have recommended it, to break up Colds, La Grippe, Tonsillitis, Influenza, Bilious fever, acute indigestion, and I find it also to be a splendid blood builder. Every family in the country now especially needs Hull's superlative for by having this remedy in the home and beginning to take it on the first symptoms of chills it will ward off the severest part of the disease. I received the best results for influenza by taking one-third teaspoonful every two hours for five doses, following with from 1 to 2 tablespoonful of castor oil or epsom salts, then continuing the medicine by taking from 6 to 10 drops 3 times a day. The patient goes into a heavy perspiration and should be kept under cover not allowing the draft to reach them, although plenty of fresh air in the room. I must say I never though I would relish the idea of having my name used for advertising but I feel it my duty in this crisis of the dreadful disease influenza, which is proving so fatal to so many, to recommend it to others for their help. Wish I could tell thousands of mothers of the merit of this wonderful medicine.

Yours very sincerely,
MRS. J. H. DIXON, R. N.
401 Middle St., Dayton, O.

Hull's Superlative is a root and bark remedy, rich in Peruvian Bark, fever breaker, Golden Seal the greatest known vegetable antiseptic and other ingredients as good as those mentioned. Hundreds testify to great good received. Be sure and keep it in the house. LaGrippe comes almost at once without warning. Then is when you need Hull's Superlative.

President Lincoln said:

This is a Government of the people, by the people and for the people.

President Wilson says:

No candidate who is a member of President Lincoln's party should be elected to Congress. If the President dictates who shall sit as Congressmen, then this nation is no longer a Government of the people.

Are You Ready for a Political Dictator?

In fighting a World War against Autocracy abroad, we should not surrender our Democracy at Home.

Champ Clark, Democratic Speaker of the House of Representatives, in discussing the Draft law said that the word Convict to him meant the same as Democrat. He now looks upon that great body of the army of the United States as a body of Convicts.

Regardless of the feelings of the fathers and mothers of our soldier boys, President Wilson asks that Champ Clark be re-elected and that no true, red blooded Republican be sent to Congress.

Remember This Next Tuesday*Autocracy or Democracy?

William G. McAdoo, son-in-law of President Wilson, as

Secretary of the Treasury,
Head of the Nation's Banking System,
Director General of All Railroads,
General Manager of All Express Companies,
Has Unexampled Power For Political Use.

HOW MUCH POWER SHOULD ONE MAN HAVE IN A DEMOCRACY? Answer Next Tuesday.

Should Republicans Have a Voice in the Management of Their Country?

Within the past few months the Government has actually appropriated more money than had been expended from the days of Washington to those of Wilson.

The National pay-rolls are overloaded with "Deserving Democrats."

All of these vast appropriations and expenditures are under the direction and control of a comparatively few Southern democrats who dominate the democratic party.

Under these conditions do you think republicans should have any representation in Congress?

President Wilson says not.

What Do You Say, Mr. Voter*A Country Without a Representative

In the War Conferences held at Versailles with our Allies the United States is without Official Representation. England, France, Belgium and Italy sent men to these conferences, having official connection with their respective governments, and those officials have power to act. Not so the United States.

President Wilson sent the mysterious Col. "John Doe" House as his personal representative, not the representative of his nation, who has no power to act for the country. He is instructed to make no agreement with the Representatives of our Allies, but merely to report matters to President Wilson, for his approval or disapproval.

This is humiliating to us as a nation, and discourteous to our Allies.

The Republicans believe that men should be named by the President and confirmed by the Senate in the regular manner to Officially Represent Our Country.

2 CARTONS ISSUED ON THE FIRST DAY

Miss Fern McBride and Mary Ruth
Junkin Present Christmas Labels
To Committee.

TO SEND GIFTS OVERSEAS.

The first cartons for shipping Christmas gifts to soldiers overseas which have lately been received by the Rush county chapter of the Red Cross, were given out yesterday afternoon by the special committee which will be at headquarters in the recorder's office in the court house every afternoon from one to five o'clock, for this purpose.

Mary Ruth Junkin was the first person to present a Christmas parcel label, which was sent from overseas by Benjamin H. Cottrill, and to received a carton in which she will pack her gifts and return to the committee for inspection and mailing. Miss Fern McBride of Mays was the other person to receive a carton. She had a label from her brother Guy McBride, who is in France.

The Rush County Council of Defense is in receipt of the bulletin from the State Council of Defense explaining the rules regulating the sending of Christmas packages to soldiers abroad or at home. A number of conflicting reports have been circulated concerning the regulations governing the sending of Christmas boxes to soldiers, sailors and marines overseas. The various departments have issued special orders for the different branches of service, and these must be followed to the letter to insure the safe delivery of packages to men now abroad.

The war department regulations will be observed in the case of every marine whose address is American Expeditionary Force. For all other marines whether in training or serving actively in this country at naval posts and stations at home and abroad, or on ship duty, navy regulations will govern.

Packages must comply with postal regulations and should be enclosed in substantial boxes with hinged or screw-top cover to facilitate opening and inspecting. When sent by express all boxes are limited to twenty pounds in weight, should measure not more than 2 cubic feet in volume, be of wood, well strapped, and these boxes should also have a hinged or screw-top.

No perishable food products, only those inclosed in cans or glass jars, should be packed in parcels post or express shipments. All packages for vessels abroad should be mailed not later than November 15.

After a series of conferences by the adjutant general of the war department, the Postoffice department and the American Red Cross, rules have been formulated for the sending of packages to soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force.

Packages must be of standard size and weight, and may be sent only by people who have received labels from a soldier in the service. These labels will serve as address labels for packages. On receiving a Christmas package label the person to whom it has been sent should present it to the nearest chapter headquarters of the Red Cross where he will receive a carton of required size. The carton is then filled with articles not barred by postal officials, and no note or message or written matter of any kind will be permitted to remain in the boxes. When preparing Christmas parcels, relatives and friends are urged to bear in mind the fact that only things that will keep fresh until Christmas should be put in the packages; give preference to hard candy over chocolates unless the latter are wrapped very securely; do not put articles packed in glass in the packages and wrap the gifts in a khaki colored handkerchief 27 inches square.

When the box is filled, it should be taken unwrapped and unsealed to the Red Cross Committee, together with the address label and sufficient postage to carry it by parcel post to Hoboken, New Jersey and left with the inspectors until delivery to the postal authorities.

No packages will be accepted by the local committee after November 15.

A Woman's Hearty Recommendation.

Worry and overwork cause kidney trouble, and women suffer equally with men. Miss Sara Westen, Belvidere, Ill., writes: "I could not stoop down and when I was down I had to crawl up by a chair. I was so lame I suffered agony. Now I feel like a new person, strong and better in every way. My general health is quite improved. I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all suffering the way I did." They relieve dizziness, puffiness under eyes, sore muscles and joints and rheumatic pains when caused by disordered kidneys. ### TO THE VOTERS OF RUSH COUNTY:

I desire to ask your consideration of my candidacy for the office of County Treasurer. With an experience of three years as deputy county treasurer, I feel I can assure you efficient service in the conduct of the office.

There are many instances in which a County Treasurer can be of real benefit to the tax-payer in questions regarding his taxes, and often in the adjustment of his taxes. If elected, my sole business will be to render to the tax-payers of the county the highest standard of service of which I am capable.

Since the opening of the active campaign, the heavy work of the office, incident to tax-paying time, has made it impossible for me to make a personal canvass of the voters. Under these conditions I take this method of asking your support and of assuring you of my deepest appreciation of any assistance you may give my candidacy.

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES A. FRAZEE.

STAND BY YOUR FRIENDS

MR. FARMER,
MR. RAILROAD MAN,
MR. LABORING MAN,

No other administration since the beginning of this Republic ever looked so carefully and so successfully after your interests as that of Woodrow Wilson.

His first thought all the time has been to look after the welfare of those who were not in a position to dictate the price of their product or what they had to sell. He saw that you were well paid for everything.

Never in the history of this or any other government have the farmers and the men who work for wages made so much money or lived so well. President Wilson believes and acts on the theory that of the great mass of the people, which is made up of farmers and wage earners, are prosperous the balance of the country is bound to thrive. He has demonstrated that his plan is right.

Are you going to stand by the President that has done more for you and your family than any other President ever has done?

You know what President Wilson and a Democratic administration has done for you, then why trade off a sure thing for an uncertainty. When you get a good friend, stay with him.

All that President Wilson asks of you is to give him a Democratic Congress next time, the same as he has now. His candidate for congress in this district is Harry G. Strickland.

The members of the Woman's Council will hold their monthly meeting Monday evening in the directors' room of the Rushville National bank at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Clorine Amos, a bride-elect, was the honor guest at a prettily appointed twelve o'clock dinner given by the Misses Jessie and Mary Anderson Friday at their country home south of the city. The guests were seated at the dining table which had a huge bouquet of lavender and white chrysanthemums in the center, and places were marked for Miss Amos, Miss Georgia Amos, Miss Nettie Clark, Miss Lucile Linn, Miss Hannah Morris, Miss Fanny Stiers, Miss Helen Seudder, Miss Mayme Hiner, Mrs. Walter Capp, Mrs. Neff Ashworth, and Mrs. Hale Pearsey.

The members of the Monday Circle will continue their meetings Monday afternoon, with the October 21 program, at the home of Miss Jennie Madden in North Main street.

Mrs. Lee Endres will be hostess Monday evening for the members of the Kappa Kappa Kappa sorority at her home in North Perkins street.

The members of the Epworth League will hold their first meeting since their long adjournment, Sunday, at the usual time at the St. Paul's M. E. church. Special music is promised and an interesting address will be given by Lieut. Earl Marlatt.

Miss Mary Louise Poe will sing a solo "When the Boy's come Back" and also a solo will be rendered by Francis Coyne entitled "Laddie and Khaki."

A prettily appointed Hallowe'en picnic dinner was given Thursday night at the home of Miss Benlah Meredith in North Harrison street. Yellow and black formed the predominating color scheme throughout the spacious rooms. The dining room table was beautifully adorned with a French basket filled with asters of varied hues. The guests for the occasion were Miss Aelsah Retherford, Miss Louise Hogsett, Miss Helen Dugan, Miss Kathleen Hogsett, Miss Ruth Higgins. After dinner the guests dressed in quaint costumes and called on their friends.

Word has been received by W. A. Wyle, 824 N. Arthur street, that his nephew, corporal Leora M. Wease of C. M. 120th Infantry, 30th Division, was killed in action September 9. The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. William Ash, of this city, and lived in Versailles, Indiana.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE— DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg-Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF ACHING JOINTS

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Liniment

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson, out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 30 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

feel the weight of her loss and mingle their tears with the near relatives on this sad occasion.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep! A calm and undisturbed repose Unbroken by the last of foes.

Asleep in Jesus, oh how sweet, To be for such a slumber meet! With holy confidence to sing, That death has lost his venomous sting.

Asleep in Jesus, peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest! No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour, That manifests the saviour's power.

Asleep in Jesus, Oh for me, May such a blissful refuge be! Securely shall my ashes lie, Waiting the summons from on high.

Detroit Weatherproof Detachable Tops

They are designed to afford motoring comfort in Winter as well as Fall and Summer.

They transform your Ford in a few brief seconds to a warm—absolutely storm-tight from windshield to rear window—brilliantly lighted limousine.

For the Ford driver who has considered winter driving a hardship rather than a pleasure, this patented all-weather top will be most acceptable as it eliminates instantly all his former hardships.

No bothersome side curtains to adjust in the biting cold or blinding snowstorms. The weatherproof top becomes an integral part of your Ford at a very reasonable cost.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR

Prosecuting Attorney

65th JUDICIAL CIRCUIT. RUSH COUNTY.

I find that I will be unable to see all the voters of the county personally. I believe I understand the duties of the office. If elected, I expect to fully discharge my duties as such officer. The people of the county are entitled to security and happiness, and protection of their property. On the other hand, innocent persons should not be prosecuted and subjected to annoyance and even disgrace; nor should they or the county be subjected to the expense of abortive trials. If the policies above outlined are satisfactory to you, I respectfully solicit your vote and assure you of my gratitude for your consideration of my candidacy.

Yours very truly,

GATES KETCHUM.

Valenciennes Wholly in The Hands of The British

have been taken. Seven villages were captured.

The attack began at five o'clock this morning, following two hours of artillery preparation.

Cold, dry weather favored the attack. The American left wing encountered hard going in the Loges wood, but finally drove the Germans out of their dense covering there.

The right wing has approached to within less than a mile of the important base of Dur Sur Meuse.

Valenciennes Encircled

With the Allied Armies in Flanders, Nov. 2.—Valenciennes is practically in the hands of the Canadians.

The attack which began yesterday morning, resulted in almost complete encirclement to the city.

The Rhonelle river, flowing eastward from that city, is filled with German dead. A captured officer declared that a little more pressure will end the German army resistance.

Clear Asiago Plateau

Rome, Nov. 2.—Italian troops have practically cleared the Asiago plateau, capturing a number of important villages and taking 3,000 additional prisoners, the war office announced today. The Livenza river has been crossed on a wide front. Italian patrols have reached the Tagliamento river.

23 Divisions Desert Austria

Zurich, Nov. 2.—Twenty-three Austrian divisions have mutinied and deserted the Italian front and are fighting among each other, according to reports received here.

French and Yanks Advance

London, Nov. 2.—French and American troops after carrying the heights of the Lys and the Scheldt rivers, are advancing on a front of nearly ten miles along the latter stream, Field Marshal Haig announced today. The Franco-Americans, in two days fighting, have advanced from five to ten miles, capturing nineteen villages.

IF THEN—

WHY NOT NOW?

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH DELIVERED AT CARNEGIE HALL, NEW YORK CITY, OCTOBER 6, 1898.

"I should ask the people of this country to support the administration of President McKinley, if for no other reason than because, say what you like, the victory at the polls of the men who are opposing and denouncing the administration in this election will be interpreted abroad as meaning on the part of America a repudiation of the war from which we have just emerged triumphant. It will strengthen the hands of every hostile power which views with jealousy our victories in the Antilles and the Philippines. It will mean that the nations that now secretly and enviously wish to clip the wings of our pride will be emboldened. It will result in the partial undoing of what our army and navy have accomplished. It will mean the chance of grave complications and the likelihood of our meeting obstacles when it comes to reaping the fruit of our triumph."

VOTE FOR

HARRY G. STRICKLAND
FOR CONGRESS

INDIANAPOLIS NEWS EDITORIAL, OCTOBER 20, 1898.

"It is not wise to swap horses when you are crossing the stream; was one of the wise sayings of Abraham Lincoln. Is not that applicable to the present state of National Politics? We are in the midst of problems growing out of the war. It is true, to be sure, that in the war there was no partisanship; that congress to a man supported the administration on the main question. But in the questions now to come up, politics will be sure to play a great part. It is better for all concerned that the President should be supported by a congress in which his own party is in the majority. Besides all that, the return of a Democratic majority would surely be interpreted abroad as a condemnation of the Administration."
